TIMES' DOLL DRESS MODEL

EACH SUNDAY PAPER WILL CONTAIN ONE, SEPARATE AND IN PRETTY COLORS.THE TIMES gives away with every copy today, its second Doll Dress Model, in colors, entitled "Ladies' English Tailor Gown."The conception of the costume is at once striking and beautiful, and if the daughter doesn't run away with it first, the mother is sure to make a dress after it. The costume is described as follows:

LADIES' ENGLISH TAILOR GOWN.

French mixed novelty goods shows cross hair lines of cream lawn, and mahogany with boucle loops of brown over its surface, is chosen for this smart tailor gown, the cuffs and collar being of golden brown satin-faced cloth. Military braiding of gold and black sau-tache braid decorate the fronts, collar and cuffs, small gilt buttons effecting the closing in center front.The coat basque is shaped in the latest English tailor style, its closely-fitting curved lines reaching well over the hips, the back and sides falling in well defined flutes or ripples below the waist line. The full topped gigot sleeves are laid in box plaits at the top, and its smoothly into the arm's eye, pointed cuffs completing the wrists. A close standing collar finishes the neck in true military style.The stylish skirt that ripples at the sides below the hips, fits smoothly at the top, the back being shaped with three gores that stand out with fluted effect. The front has a medium width gore and wide side gores, making six in all, and it is of good but not extravagant width at the lower edge.Mixed and plain woolen goods in their various weaves are used for suits by the mode, the coat basque often being fitted over a silk waist so that it can be removed indoors. Serge, cheviot, tweed, vicuna, camel's hair, and rough or smooth-faced cloth can be stylishly developed and finished plainly with stitched edges, or decorated with braid as here delineated.Coat basque is cut in six sizes—32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches breast measure.Skirt is cut in five sizes, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure.Q street northwest. Mme. de Meck is a vivacious brunette of great charm of manner, who has proven a delightful acquisition to society at the capital.Exquisite Sevres porcelain and massive silver of the Louis Quinze period ornamented the table, the floral decorations being of roses in a center piece and scattered single roses.Mme. de Meck received her guests gowned in black satin, spangled with jet, the stock collar being of white satin.
Guests were: The Brazilian Minister and Mme. de Mendonca, the Misses de Men-dent and his family, the members of the Cabinet and ladies.Mr. Alexander de Sonow, Russian charge d'affaires, has gone to New York to meet the Russian minister, who is expected to arrive in the city tomorrow.M. and Mme. de Meck have invited friends for this evening to celebrate the Russian New Year, which, by the Julian calendar, falls eleven days later than by the Gregorian, and will begin at 12 o'clock tomorrow night. Champagne will sparkle for the toast drunk to the czar of all the Russias, the new minister, the courteous host and hostess and doubtless for America and Americans.M. and Mme. de Meck have invited Gen. and Mrs. Meriwage, Miss Meriwage, Mr.
Rutkowski, Mr. and Mrs. Smerenoff, and M. de Sonow, who will, unfortunately, be absent.Mrs. Frank T. Howe and the Misses Howe will be at home to their friends, at No. 1318 R street northwest, on Thursdays for the rest of the season, from 4 to 10 o'clock.Mrs. Doe of the Cairo, gave a tea yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Wall of Milwaukee.
The handsome ballroom of the Cairo was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, santals and holly, while vases and bowls of roses were placed about the room.Mrs. Doe was gowned in corn colored satin with jet passerenerie and black velvet trimmings.Mrs. Wall wore light oriental silk, with collar of green satin and point lace with spangles.Assisting were: Miss Walter, in a gown of gray bengaline, with blue satin and chiffon; Mrs. Richard Gray Parke, in old rose and black silk, with old rose velvet;
